

(such as information about material negotiations whose publication was delayed) or alternatively it must publish such information prior to the buyback transaction.
