

Question:

Is it possible to set the date for acceptance in a purchase offer of non-convertible bonds whose proceeds are in cash as one business day after the date of the offer's publication?

Answer:

During the Corona virus crisis and subject to every law and the terms of the bond, there is no obstacle to doing so and this is without detracting from what is mentioned in question and answer 103-11 and on the condition that if the corporation published its financial statements or rating report for the issuer or for the bond being offered or any other material information, the last date of acceptance will be no less than 3 business days from the aforementioned date of publishing.
